DETAILED ACTIONNotice to applicant

1. Applicants' Amendment and Response to the Office Action mailed Feb. 14, 2005 and Request for a Continued Examination have been entered and made of record . Following is an Office Action responding to the request.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 8-12 are objected to because of the following informalities: in claim 8, in line 3 substitution of "a discontinuous island structure" with --discontinuous islands-- and in claim 9, lines 1-2, substitution of "a discontinuous island structure includes a discontinuous island structure " with --discontinuous islands includes discontinuous islands --. Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 9-12 variously depend from claim 8, they are objected to for the same reason.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 3, 5, 7-42, and 65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Even though the specification discloses a seed layer having seed islands on a substrate, there is no indication that the substrate is of insulating material. The examiner interpreted that in the normal situation the substrate of a semiconductor device is a semiconductor material having conductive portions that would be connected to the subsequently formed interconnects, the discontinued seed islands would be electrically connected by the underlying conductive portions. Therefore, the individual elements of the discontinuous seed layer are not electrically isolated from each other, as claimed in the independent claims 7, 8, 13, 20, 28, and 34.

Claims 3, 5, 9-12, 14-19, 21-27, 29-33, and 35-42 variously depend from claims 7, 8, 13, 20, 28, or 34, they are rejected for the same reason.

Art Unit: 2812

Response to Amendment

4. In view of the amendments to the claims, the rejections of claims 3, 5, 7-42, and 65 under 35 U.S.C. 103, as stated in the indicated Office Action, have been withdrawn. Applicants' arguments are therefore rendered moot.
